

HIPAA

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA)

Patient Name: _____ Date of Birth: _____

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) requires that health providers keep your medical and dental information private. The HIPAA Privacy Rule states that health providers must also post in a clear and prominent location, and provide patients with, a written Notice of Privacy Policy.

The DreamGuard Privacy Practices notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access this information. You may request a copy of our Privacy Notice at any time.

Please read over our Privacy Policies then sign below.

I have received and read through DreamGuard's Privacy Policy.

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Signature: _____